4. Judging Criteria: There will be two separate divisions for judging of the Entries – one is open to all Entrants, and the second is open to students of Sponsor and Chamberlain.

- All Entrants Division: Each person attending the D’Arts Art Show (“Show”) between January 20, 2015, and January 22, 2015, may cast one vote for his/her favorite art work in the Contest. D’Arts Council members will collect the ballots and tabulate the votes. The piece of art receiving the most votes will receive the “People’s Choice Award.” One (1) vote per attendee. In the event of a tie duplicate prizes will be awarded. The winner will be notified by e-mail or phone on or about January 22, 2015.

- Students Division: By Wednesday, January 20, 2015, the Entries of the students of Sponsor and Chamberlain, will be evaluated holistically by a judge competent in the Contest area according to the following equally-weighted criteria: (a) the artist’s ability to create a piece using principles applicable to the media (i.e., color, dimension and perspective, texture); (b) the artist’s ability to create an overall artistic impression; and (c) the overall quality of the presentation (i.e., suitable framing). In an effort to conceal the identity of each contestant, Entries will be assigned a number by the Sponsor. The judge will be provided Entries bearing only the assigned number and the contest category. The judge will determine a first place in each category. An honorable mention in each category may also be awarded at the sole discretion of the judge. These winners will be awarded a ribbon and a certificate. In the event of a tie, the Entrant with the better ability to create an overall artistic impression will be the Winner. The judge will also determine a “Best of Show Award” from among the student entries. Employees of Sponsor and Chamberlain, and family members of either employees or students, will not be considered for the Best of Show Award. Winners will be notified by e-mail or phone if they are not present for the announcement. Decisions of the judge regarding this Contest are final in all respects and binding upon entrants/winners.
