

Grow the Business of You in Accounting & Finance

DeVry University's Keller Graduate School of Management invites you to attend an Accounting & Finance WORKSHOP that will help you get more information on the diverse world of Accounting & Finance

The workshop presenters are leaders in the Accounting & Finance industry with years of experience and knowledge of the information you need to be successful in today's world of Accounting & Finance.

Presenters include:

- Dino Micheli; Former CFO, Licensed Real Estate Broker and Professor, Keller Graduate School of Management, MBA, CPA
- Jim Gajewski; Controller, Global Gear LLC, Professor, Keller Graduate School of Management, MBA, CPA
- Tony Lewis; Owner of Chevalier Lewis Accounting and Tax Service, Professor, Keller Graduate School of Management, CPA, CMA, MBA, MSA

Date: Thursday, October 20, 2011

Time: 6:00pm – 8:00pm

Location: Schaumburg Center

Address: 1051 Perimeter Drive, 9th Floor, Schaumburg, IL 60173

Workshop Details:

6:00 pm – Personal Finance and the Current Real Estate Market by Dino Micheli

6:45 pm – Break and snacks provided by Lou Malnati's Pizzeria of Schaumburg

7:00 pm – I have an Accounting degree what else can I do besides the CPA by Jim Gajewski

7:30 pm - The new CPA in 2011 – What should I know by Tony Lewis

Participants will learn:

- The knowledge you are looking for to manage your personal finances effectively.
- The Ins and Outs of finance in today's Real Estate market.
- What other opportunities are available for accountants besides the CPA.
- Everything you need to know about the changes made to the CPA in 2011 and beyond.

To register or for more information contact Kim Davis at 847-330-0040 or kdavis5@keller.edu.